ATOZ: A new configuration

ATOZ S.A. has agreed with the management teams of ATOZ Real Estate Sàrl (ARE) and ATOZ Management Consultants S.A. (AMC) a management buy out of their respective firms. This follows a successful build up of both firms over the last years. ATOZ Real Estate Sàrl is a specialist real estate advisory firm, ATOZ Management Consultants S.A. is specialized in financial and economic consulting services for the Public Sector and Commercial Companies.

Following the management buy-out, ARE and AMC will continue serving their respective clients as independent Luxembourgish consulting firms, while continuing to cooperate with ATOZ S.A. and creating value for their respective clients. Further announcements will be made by both firms shortly.

Keith O'Donnell, Managing Partner of ATOZ S.A. said: "We congratulate the management of AMC and ARE on this exciting new development and we wish them and their teams every success. We look forward to continuing to work together in this new configuration"

Mario Reinert and Patrick Meyer, Managing Directors of ARE said "We are pleased with this new evolution of our business model, which will allow our business to continue its growth and realize its full potential in the field of high end real estate advisory services."

Frank Leuschen, Managing Director of AMC said "This new structure will empower our management team to continue its core business of serving local public authorities and commercial companies, while expanding into selected new areas"
